Jesus Thank You

The myst'ry of the cross
I cannot comprehend,
The agonies of Calvary.
You, the perfect Holy One,
crushed Your Son,
Who drank the bitter cup reserved for me.

Chorus:

Your blood has washed away my sin.
Jesus, thank You.
The Father's wrath completely satisfied,
Jesus, thank You.
Once Your enemy,
now seated at Your table,
Jesus thank You.

By Your perfect sacrifice
I've been brought near.
Your enemy You've made Your friend.
Pouring out the riches
of Your glorious grace,
Your mercy and Your kindness know no end.

Chorus

Lover of my soul
I want to live for You.

Chorus

Salvation Belongs to Our God

from Revelation 5:13

Adrian Hastings and Pat Turner

The musical score is written in G major and common time (C). It consists of five staves of music with lyrics underneath. The first two staves are the main verses, and the last three are the chorus. Chords are indicated by letters above the notes. The lyrics are: 1. Sal-va-tion be-longs to our God, Who sits up-on the throne, 2. And we the re-deemed shall be strong In pur-pose and un-i-ty, And un-to the Lamb, Praise and glu-ry, wis-dom and thanks, De-clar-ing a-load, Hon-our and po-wer and strength Be to our God for ev-er and ev-er, Be to our God for ev-er and ev-er, Be to our God for e-ver and ev-er, A-men.

The Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper is one of two sacraments commanded by Christ and entrusted to his church (the other being Baptism). It portrays the gospel in a tangible way. Distributing bread and wine pictures the broken body and shed blood of Jesus freely offered for the forgiveness of sin and the transformation of our character. Eating those elements illustrates the faith that embraces Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord.

What's the Lord's Supper for?

- Renewing our faith in God's goodness and grace.
- Grasping the freedom God offers to live like Jesus, reconcile conflicts and find power for service.

Who is the Lord's Supper for?

- Members in good standing of any church that faithfully teaches the gospel, and who long for fellowship with Christ today.
- Children may partake in communion once they have confessed their own faith publicly before the congregation. Until then, be sure to include your children in the sacrament by reminding them what you believe and letting them accompany you to the Table. And remember that you are free to take the elements at the front of the sanctuary, where you could quietly gather your family together to ask God for his blessing.
