

Galatians 6:6-18 Study

OPENING QUESTION:

SERMON DISCUSSION: How were you impacted by the sermon? What new thoughts or lessons did you discover? In what ways did you find yourself challenged and/or encouraged?

READ GALATIANS 6:6-18

1. What is Paul encouraging in verse 6 (1 Corinthians 9:11,14; 1 Timothy 5:17-18)? List some of the “good things” that you could share with those who have taught you.

2. Read Galatians 6:7-9; John 3:33 and 2 Corinthians 4:17. Paul says, “...Whatever one sows, that will he reap.” Why would believers grow weary of doing good if they are to reap good? How does Paul encourage believers?

3. Share an example of what you have sown and had the blessing of reaping.

4. What is the opportunity Paul is talking about in verse 10? Who are the recipients of this opportunity? What opportunities do you find that you can take advantage of today?

5. How does Paul reveal the motivation and inconsistency of those promoting circumcision to the Galatians (verses 12-14)?

6. According to Paul a new creation is the only thing that “counts for anything” (v. 15). What does this mean to the believer (2 Corinthians 5:17)? From the Galatian references below describe the various aspects concerning the new creation:

It is a result of? (2:16, 20)

It has put an end to what? (3:13, 23-25)

It includes? (3:28)

It comes with what help? To avoid what? (5:19-21)

It is accompanied by what? (5:22-25)

It brings what blessings? (6:16)

7. If someone asked you, “What’s the book of Galatians about?” what would you say?

8. What is one thing from your study of Galatians that you have especially appreciated?
