Prayer of Confession Mike Stephan

Lord God, we thank you for the light of the Gospel. The Gospel Message exposes the deeds of our flesh and exposes them to the light of your provision for forgiveness in Christ Jesus; it also reveals your mercy and grace leading us to repentance and faith. By your Spirit, persuade and enable us to enter into the place of repentance toward you and faith in our Lord Jesus; who offered himself as the perfect sacrifice to satisfy your divine justice. In him restore to us the joy of your salvation; bind up that which is broken, give light to our minds, strength to our wills and rest to our souls. Let us rest in the place of faith, where whosoever believes in Him has everlasting life. Amen.

Confession of Faith: Heidelberg Catechism Question #1

LEADER: What is your only comfort in life and in death?
PEOPLE: That I, with body and soul, both in life and in death, am not my own, but belong to my faithful Savior Jesus Christ, who with His precious blood has fully satisfied for all my sins, and redeemed me from all the power of the devil; and so preserves me, that without the will of my Father in heaven not a hair can fall from my head; indeed, that all things must work together for my salvation. Wherefore, by His Holy Spirit, He also assures me of eternal life, and makes me heartily willing and ready henceforth to live unto Him.

HOLY COMMUNION TODAY:

Today we will be celebrating the Lord's Supper (Communion). The Bread (our unleavened cracker is gluten-free) represents the Body of Jesus and the wine (in our case, grape juice) represents the blood of Christ, both “given for us” (Luke 22:19,20) to atone for our sins. Indeed, the Apostle Paul tells us that “whenever we eat the bread and drink the cup, we proclaim the Lord's death” (1 Corinthians 11:26).

Since the acts of eating the bread and drinking the cup are, in themselves, a profession of faith and trust in Christ's atoning work on our behalf, it only makes sense that communicants should be only those who are already trusting in Jesus Christ for salvation. The Apostle Paul warns those who would approach the Lord's Table with an unexamined heart: “For anyone who eats and drinks without recognizing the body of the Lord eats and drinks judgment upon himself.” (1 Corinthians 11:29).

For this reason, we ask that only those professing faith in Jesus Christ and united by membership in a Gospel-believing church partake of the sacrament today. If you or your children have never been received into church membership by profession of faith in Jesus and feel that you are ready to make such a profession of faith, please contact the SPEP Office and we would love to facilitate such a step with you.

Above all, we hope that you will experience the loving presence of Jesus here, with us, today!
